The kind doctor - Our friend is not in the house at this moment all you would hear from her.

All is well - on the whole I mean it - be so with you & yours - Give my regards out for many & many a decade. I write in a race with time - Yours JW,

Dec. 23 - [1909]

I return one of the letters as you request. But O why keeps away by them?

At this time dear Mrs.
Peterson - only a few words & those upon business. I called in my own photographs but he could not manage the size & the kind - which I supposed you are seeking - & which for myself I should want.
Since - I have inquired at the two places here where the best work in Boston is probably done. At Garois the cost of 6 each in Sepia will be $110. He will not use the carbon method during it - troublesome & doubtful in its results. Price - The other man will make the heads in carbon if desired but thinks the paper equally good & even more durable.

(but - either safe enough)

His price is 25. for the first copy & 18. for each of the following 5.

It is likely that you could have had this work done in N. Y. according to your desire - I regret that it was not so - You probably wanted the pictures for Xmas - And yet I do not know how I could have done otherwise - It seemed better to do it here than to send the head away - the former not being quite sound.

As you decide please let me know - & I will engage what is possible the thing admits of. Thanks leastly for your kind explanation as to the letter - it was truly gracious to put you to a midnight task - for what might seem to you a caprice - My love to you &
